Submit Proof of age, 30 years old or less.

The Armand Blanc Prize is Awarded to a young professional for the best paper presented by the author at a CIGR World Congress or International Conference. The Prize consists of a certificate recognizing the awardee and US$2000.00.

The CIGR Armand Blanc Prize was established in recognition of Prof. Armand Blanc, head of the “Institut National Agronomique”, Paris, President of CIGR 1950-62. The purpose of the prize is to motivate and recognize young professional contributions to research and development in agricultural and biosystems engineering.

The award is presented at a CIGR World Congress or Conference. It is awarded to a young author of 30 years of age or less by the closing of the conference. Candidates wishing to compete for the award must apply by the deadline below and provide proof of age. The candidate must be the first author and present the work at a CIGR Congress or Conference.

Finalists are selected by the CIGR Awards Committee in consultation with the Congress or Conference organizer. The final award is based on the quality, originality, and ability of the author to communicate the findings of the research.

Those wishing to enter the competition must submit an extended abstract and proof of age. The candidate must be of an age 30 years or less by the closing of CIGR2022.

If interested in competing for the Armand Blanc Prize, please submit to awards@cigr.org, before October 31st, 2022, Japan local time, UTC +9:

1. Extended Abstract per the requirements in the CIGR2022 official extended abstract format.
2. Copy of government issued document with age of competitor (Copy of any document provided will be immediately destroyed upon receipt and verification of age).

The CIGR Awards Committee will confirm the receptions of applications by e-mail. If you do not receive the confirmation within a week after the submission, please contact awards@cigr.org.
